

Match the start of the sentence
with it's end:

The ocean itself isn't really	have their young in warmer waters.
Blue whales migrate to eat and	blue; we're just seeing the reflected blue light.
Blue whale calves can weigh	up to three tons at birth.

Make questions to match the answers:

- _____ ?
- The Great Barrier Reef.
- _____ ?
- Baleen.
- _____ ?
- To protect them from predators.
- _____ ?
- Pods.
- _____ ?
- Yes, they are.
- _____ ?
- No, it isn't.
- _____ ?
- Nobody knows.

What's the difference between:

snorkelling & diving

seaweed & seagrass

crab & hermit crab

dolphin & orca

shark & whale shark

extinct & endangered

True or false?

1. Corals have organs.
2. Occupying less than 10 percent of the ocean floor, coral reefs are home to more than 50 percent of marine life.
3. There are many true plants found in tropical oceans.
4. All oceans are connected to each other.
5. Phytoplankton make food from sunlight.
6. Some tuna fish can swim over 80 kilometres per hour.
7. The sailfish is the slowest fish in the ocean.
8. The deepest point on the planet is Challenger Deep a nearly 22 kilometre deep pit in the Mariana Trench.
9. The aqualung was invented in Spain in 1930's.
10. About 50 percent of the Earth's surface is covered by oceans.

